A PITIFUL CASE AT ORPHANAGE

Interesting Letter of Dr. Bledsoe to His Brother.

The reception of homeless children at the Methodist Orphanage continues. Last week three little ones from Lynchburg came in. Almost every week they come and more are expected very shortly.

One particularly interesting case is before Superintendent Martin. It is explained in the following, which is a portion of a letter to Dr. J. Wiley Bledsoe, from his brother, Dr. P. Bledsoe, a physician of Hanover:

"My Dear Brother, I write hurriedly to interest you in behalf of two splendid orphan girls, whose father (my patient) died a few days ago of pneumonia. It was sad to look upon him breathing his last, his wife, a physical and mental wreck, with her face closely pressed up against his, in his dying moments, an infant at her breast and the two little girls, one five and the other four years of age, sad of face and poorly clad, lingering around watching for the last glimpse of one whose daily labor was their only support. The good people of the neighborhood were kind and attentive; did all they could to comfort them, and are still supplying their daily wants. I was to see them today. They are left penniless and unprotected—no money, no friends or relatives, who are able to help them. The mother belongs to the Methodist Church (Centenary Church, Petersburg, Va.). The father was a member of the same church. The baby is sixteen months old. Do you think it is possible to get the two oldest, or all three of them, homes in the Methodist Orphanage this morning? The next two months, if possible, I write to you because I want your influence in this special case. I have given them my time and exposed myself in wet and cold, besides contributing of my means to relieve their need. I feel they are worthy and needy. They came to this section about six months ago, and have no relatives nearer than Sussex, with whom we were unable to do anything for them, old and dependent as they are represented to be."

Snap Shots Taken In Hotel Lobbies

Former Judge James W. Marshall, of Craig county, who was a prominent figure in the recent Constitutional Convention, is in the city, and was at Murphy's last night. The popular mountain statesman has allowed his beard to grow considerably since he was last in Richmond, and when it was suggested to him last night that the profile crop of chin whiskers he was wearing had been stimulated by the fresh mountain breeze of Craig, Judge Marshall drawled out: "I haven't had any tonsorial performances on my swan-like neck for some time."

The friends of Judge Marshall will urge him to stand for Congress in the Ninth District at the next election.

Captain Richard S. Parks, familiarly known to his friends here as the "Gnome Cook from Park," is at Murphy's.

Parks would not say positively whether or not he would become a candidate for the Legislature this fall, but said if he ran for either house it would be for the Senate in the new district composed of the counties of Clarke, Page and Warren. During his long service in the House Captain Parks was looked upon as one of the ablest leaders of that body.

Hon. Allen Caperton Braxton, of Augusta; Judge John D. Hoxley and Messrs. J. L. Lee and J. Tinsley Coleman of Lynchburg, were among the distinguished guests seen in the lobby at Murphy's last night.

Virginians here last night were: Murphy's J. Singleton Dices, Lynchburg; M. M. Hardy, Warwick; T. Sheppard, Norfolk; E. L. Thornhill, Lynchburg; Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Evans, Church View; W. B. Lively, Newport News; L. C. Berkeley, Danville; George W. Miles, Radford; T. Coleman, Lynchburg; B. S. Parks, Luray; J. M. Dunaway, Marion; L. S. Foster, Williamsburg.

New Ford's J. T. Lacy, Scottsburg; J. D. Pauntleroy, Livingston; W. C. Scott, Drake's Branch; J. C. Carrington, Charlottesville; L. E. Williams, King William.

Lexington—V. L. Fowlkes, South Boston.

County Convention.

The first county convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Henrico will be held at the Leigh Street Baptist Church to-morrow morning, beginning at 10 o'clock. There will be a morning and an afternoon session. It is expected that all the unions will be represented. Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Hodge will be present, as will also Mrs. M. W. Newton, State organizer.

Senator Ople's Condition.

The condition of Senator J. N. Ople remains unchanged. He is at the Retreat for the Sick, under the treatment of Dr. George Ben Johnston. He was taken to the Retreat because the Old Dominion, which is Dr. Johnston's hospital, was full of patients.

Colonel Miles Is Here.

Colonel George W. Miles, who has been mentioned with the presidency of the University of Virginia, is at Murphy's Hotel.

Legislature; but they are watching with keen and unwearied attention the course of events."

The Herald also contains a brief editorial along the line of the Light sensation concerning the institutions of learning in the State. The Herald declares that certain sentences in the recent article in the Central Presbyterian on the subject "leave us in the fog. The Central Presbyterian rather shades us up again, and what we need is 'more light'."

COL. RICHARDSON FOR TORRENS SYSTEM

Colonel John W. Richardson, Register of the Land Office, is in favor of the Torrens system for registering land. While Colonel Richardson is sure the new plan would not affect his department, yet he believes it would be a good thing for all parties concerned. In discussing the subject last night, Colonel Richardson said:

"As far as I have been able to investigate the Torrens system, I think it will very greatly simplify the abstraction of land titles and save much cost and worry to the grantor, as well as to the grantee, and greatly facilitate the sale and transfer of real estate. I am not advised as to the cost of putting this system into operation, but am satisfied that its value to land owners will justify considerable cost and labor. In that it will enable both grantor and grantee quickly and with comparative (to present conditions in many cases) no expense to arrive at the validity of titles. This system, as I understand it, will in no way affect the operation of the Land Office, as grants issued therefrom are original and clear titles from the Commonwealth of Virginia."

COL. MEADE HASKINS WILL BE THE MAN

It is said that the Democrats of the counties of Amelia and Nottoway will unanimously nominate Colonel Meade Haskins, formerly of this city, but now of Blackstone, to succeed Congressman Southall in the House of Delegates. Colonel Haskins is widely known here as a lawyer and Democratic leader, and will be a prominent member of the Legislature.
